

convolution [sed struc]

convolution [sed struc] (con-vo-lu'-tion). (a) The process of producing convolute bedding; the state of being convoluted. (b) A structure produced by convolution, such as a small-scale but intricate fold. (c) convolute bedding.

Tags:

- geotimes

Website:

GeoWord of the Day
