

AGU Hosts Workshop on Sexual Harassment

American Geophysical Union
Association for Women Geoscientists

The American Geophysical Union (AGU), along with the American Association for the Advancement of Science, the American Chemical Society, the Association for Women Geoscientists, the Earth Science Women's Network, and the American Geosciences Institute convened a workshop on September 9th, titled, "Sexual Harassment in the Sciences: A Call to Respond." This Journal of Geophysical Research Space Physics Editor-in-Chief's blog post outlines some of the resources available from AGU going forward. Previously AGU's President Margaret Leinen discussed the issue in the "From the Prow" blog, and topic in EOS shortly thereafter.
