

Published on American Geosciences Institute (<https://www.americangeosciences.org>)

Home > depositional fabric

depositional fabric

depositional fabric . Rock fabric or that fabric element or elements that result from deposition during the rock's formation, e.g. sedimentary grains in an unmetamorphosed, current-laid sediment or crystals deposited by crystal settling in a magma chamber; the fabric of a primary tectonite. Cf: deformation fabric.

Tags:

- geotimes

Website:

GeoWord of the Day
