

Celebrate Women in Geology at #ACE2017

American Association of Petroleum Geologists

What does a woman in geology look like to you? The American Association of Petroleum Geologists' (AAPG) Professional Women in the Earth Sciences (PROWESS) with the Society of Exploration Geophysicists Women's Network and the Association for Women Geoscientists will be hosting "Pioneering Women in Petroleum Geology" event on April 1st in Houston. Get ideas for how to celebrate by watching the video, and check out other networking events to celebrate AAPG's Centennial!
