

AAG Sends Letter to Congress Opposing Federal Budget Cuts

American Association of Geographers

The American Association of Geographers sent a letter to Congress outlining cuts to the federal budget that would negatively impact geographers and express concern over the President's proposal. Prior to the budget roll-out, AAG sent another letter denouncing the leaked 2018 National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration budget cuts, specifically the management of fisheries under their oversight.

Tags:

- geotimes, policy, president, member society
-