Application Period for GSA's On To The Future Program Now Open #diversity

Geological Society of America

THE GEOLOGICAL SOCIETY
OF AMERICA®

The application period for the Geological Society of America's On To The Future (OTF) program is now open. OTF awards partial travel scholarships to undergraduate and graduate students, and recent graduates studying in the geosciences, to attend their first GSA Annual Meeting. Students enrolled in 2- and 4-year programs who come from diverse backgrounds are encouraged to apply by May 26, 2017.
