#AAGChat: Geography and the New Administration - Online #Policy Discussion from AAG

American Association of Geographers

As the Trump Administration marks its first 100 days in office, the American Association of Geographers (AAG) will discuss policies that could affect geographers and the geography discipline in the future. An #AAGChat, a conversation that happens via Twitter, is scheduled for May 17, 2017 from 3:00 to 4:00pm EST. To participate follow @theAAG on Twitter, and tag your questions using #AAGChat.
