Earth Science Week 2017: New Event Registry Heightens Your Visibility

#earthscienceweek

Are you hosting an Earth Science Week 2017 event, such as an exhibit, tour, lecture, or open house? The new Earth Science Week Event Registry enables you to promote your event more effectively than ever. To register your event, simply provide a few key details. Fill out the easy-to-use online form, and let the Earth Science Week team and the world know about your event. Any registered event will be listed on Earth Science Week's Events In Your Area and acknowledged in the Earth Science Week Highlights Report following the event.
