

orthohydrous

orthohydrous (or-tho-hy'-drous). (a) Said of coal containing 5-6% hydrogen, analyzed on a dry, ash-free basis. (b) Said of a maceral of normal hydrogen content, e.g. vitrinite. Cf: subhydrous; perhydrous.

Tags:

- geotimes

Website:

GeoWord of the Day
