ALEXANDRIA, Va. - Where can you find out about educational resources, events, and opportunities available through Earth Science Week, the annual worldwide celebration of the geosciences? Start by going online to view a new webcast titled "Get Involved: Earth Science Week 2017"!

This free webcast, narrated by AGI's Sequoyah McGee, provides an overview of learning activities, instructional materials, career resources, upcoming events, networking opportunities, contests, videos, and other programs available through Earth Science Week. The tutorial provides a tour of online links and resources for more information.

The roughly 8-minute webcast focuses on Earth Science Week 2017 (October 8-14), which celebrates the theme "Earth and Human Activity." To view the webcast, visit <http://www.earthsciweek.org/webcasts>. In addition, see webcasts describing the Earth Science Week contests, special "focus days" during the week, and AGI's geoscience teacher award competition.

Reaching over 50 million people annually, Earth Science Week has been led by AGI in cooperation with its sponsors and the geoscience community since 1998. To learn more, please visit www.earthsciweek.org. To order your Earth Science Week Toolkits, see www.earthsciweek.org/materials. You may also call AGI Publications to place your order at 703-379-2480.
