

stratiform nickel-copper deposit

stratiform nickel-copper deposit . A mineral-deposit type characterized by stratiform nickel and copper sulfide minerals in the basal portion of layered mafic-ultramafic intrusive complexes. Syn: Stillwater-type nickel-copper deposit.

Tags:

- geotimes

Website:

GeoWord of the Day
