

Published on American Geosciences Institute (<https://www.americangeosciences.org>)

Home > International Gravity Standardization Net 1971

International Gravity Standardization Net 1971

International Gravity Standardization Net 1971 . The world-wide network of the gravity base stations providing a reference frame for the absolute gravity measurements using the same type of gravimeters. Supersedes the Potsdam system that was defined by pendulum measurements in 1906.

Tags:

- geotimes

Website:

GeoWord of the Day
