

lateral saddle

lateral saddle . An adoral inflection of a suture of a nautiloid or ammonoid shell between the ventral and dorsal lobes; in coiled conchs, lateral saddles may be external or internal according to whether they are on the flanks or dorsal areas (TIP, 1964, pt. K, p.57).

Tags:

- geotimes

Website:

GeoWord of the Day
