

equilibrated chondrite

equilibrated chondrite . A chondrite whose major mineral constituents (chondrules, matrix, and metal) have equilibrated during thermal metamorphism. These meteorites are of petrographic (petrologic) grade 4, 5, 6, or 7.

Tags:

- geotimes

Website:

GeoWord of the Day
