

Published on American Geosciences Institute (<https://www.americangeosciences.org>)

Home > exotic stream

exotic stream

exotic stream . A stream that derives much of its waters from a drainage system in another region; e.g. a stream that has its source in a humid or well-weathered area but that flows across a desert before reaching the sea. Example: the Nile. Cf: indigenous stream.

Tags:

- geotimes

Website:

GeoWord of the Day
