

tectonosphere

tectonosphere (tec-ton'-o-sphere). The zone or layer of the Earth above the level of isostatic equilibrium, in which crustal or tectonic movements originate. Rarely used. Cf: crust [interior Earth].

Tags:

- geotimes

Website:

GeoWord of the Day
