

parataxon

parataxon (par-a-tax'-on). An informal designation for those fossilized remains, esp. of animals, that are only part of the whole individual and that usually occur widely separated from other parts; e.g. a particular conodont element. Cf: form genus. See also: taxon.

Tags:

- geotimes

Website:

GeoWord of the Day
