

Published on American Geosciences Institute (<https://www.americangeosciences.org>)

Home > peak-ring crater

peak-ring crater

peak-ring crater . A complex impact crater with a central mountainous ring, instead of a central peak, surrounding its center. Peak-ring craters are generally larger than central-peak craters on a given planet or satellite. The radial profile of the ring is roughly symmetric, as opposed to that of a multi-ring crater.

Tags:

- geotimes

Website:

GeoWord of the Day
