mound [arch]. A small, human-made hill, composed either of debris accumulated during successive occupations of the site (syn: tell; teppe) or of earth heaped up to mark a burial site.

Tags:
- geotimes

Website:
GeoWord of the Day