

Published on American Geosciences Institute (<https://www.americangeosciences.org>)

Home > erosion caldera

erosion caldera

erosion caldera . A type of caldera that is developed by the erosion and resultant widening of a caldera or by erosion of a volcanic cone, resulting in a large, central cirquelike depression. It is considered by some not to be a true caldera type, since it is not formed by volcanic processes. Cf: explosion caldera; collapse caldera.

Tags:

- geotimes

Website:

GeoWord of the Day
