welded flow breccia

welded flow breccia. The lower part of the fragmented crust of aa and block-lava flows, where the fragments are thoroughly welded together rather than being loose as in the upper part of the crust.

Tags:
- geotimes

Website:
GeoWord of the Day