

Published on American Geosciences Institute (<https://www.americangeosciences.org>)

Home > window [geophys]

window [geophys]

window [geophys] . (a) A portion of a seismic record free from certain disturbances, i.e., where noise trains are absent. (b) The portion of a data set chosen for consideration, such as for designing operators to be used for autocorrelation or frequency analysis.
Syn: gate [geophys].

Tags:

- geotimes

Website:

GeoWord of the Day
