

Petroleum History Institute's 2018 Oil History Symposium & Field Trip

Petroleum History Institute

Attached are two flyers for the Petroleum History Institute's 2018 Oil History Symposium & Fieldtrip, Salt Lake City, Utah, May 17-19.

For AAPG members, please note that this is immediately before the AAPG ACE (May 20-23), also in Salt Lake City.

PHI appreciates our members & friends who have been able to get our flyers or information about our symposia into local newsletters, bulletins, and on-line calendars of other organizations.

More information will be emailed in the coming months.
