

stick-slip

stick-slip . A jerky, sliding motion associated with fault movement that may be a mechanism in shallow-focus earthquakes. A model of fault slip in which distinct slip episodes are separated by periods in which the fault is locked and stress increases.

Tags:

- geotimes

Website:

GeoWord of the Day
