

Published on American Geosciences Institute (<https://www.americangeosciences.org>)

Home > tideland

tideland

tideland (tide'-land). (a) The coastal area that is alternately covered and uncovered by the ordinary daily tides; land that is covered by tidewater during a flood tide. (b) Land that underlies the ocean beyond the low-water mark, but within the territorial waters of a nation. The term is often used in the plural.

Tags:

- geotimes

Website:

GeoWord of the Day
